3. Financial Need Statement

Although JACL Chicago Scholarships are merit-based scholarships, financial need is considered when determining awards. Briefly, please tell us how you are planning to fund your education.

4. Letters of Recommendation

Please submit two (2) letters of recommendation with your application. At least one of the letters must be from a teacher, counselor, or school administrator who is familiar with your academic work. Recommendations from friends or family will not be considered. Recommendations must be in sealed envelopes, with the seal signed over by the letter writer.

For the following sections (sections 5 - 9), please attach and number supplemental pages. Your name should appear at the top right of each page.

5. JACL Involvement

Use this section to list your engagement with JACL at the local, regional, and national levels within the last four years. Please provide short descriptions of your involvement and contributions, including years involved, leadership positions, etc.

Previous scholarship winners: List only activities, programs, organizations, positions, etc. in which you have participated since receiving your award.

6. JACL mission-related involvement

JACL is the nation's oldest and largest Asian American civil rights organization, whose mission is to advance social justice and promote the legacy and cultural heritage of the Japanese American community. Since its founding in 1929, JACL has been involved in major civil rights victories overturning anti-miscegenation laws, immigration and naturalization restrictions, and racial discrimination in education, housing, and employment. In addition, JACL has supported marriage equality, hate crime legislation, affirmative action in higher education, and diversity in media and politics.

Use this section to list activities, programs, initiatives, etc. that you have been a part of within the last four years that align with JACL's mission of promoting social justice and the Japanese American legacy. Please provide short descriptions of your involvement and contributions, including years involved, leadership positions, awards received, etc.

Previous scholarship winners: List only activities, programs, organizations, positions, etc. in which you have participated since receiving your award.

7. Local Japanese American community involvement

Use this section to list any Japanese American activities, programs, initiatives, organizations, etc. (excluding JACL) in the Chicagoland area in which you have been involved within the last four years. Please provide short descriptions of your involvement and contributions, including years involved, leadership positions, etc.

Previous scholarship winners: List only activities, programs, organizations, positions, etc. in which you have participated since receiving your award.

8. Other Activities

Use this section to list any activities not included in the previous sections (including extracurricular, co-curricular, volunteer, and work activities). Please provide short descriptions of your involvement and contributions, including years involved, leadership positions, awards received, etc.

Previous scholarship winners: List only activities, programs, organizations, positions, etc. in which you have participated since receiving your award.

9. Personal Statement

Why is the work of JACL important to you and/or to society?

Please keep your statement between 500 and 1000 words, and type and double-space your response. Your submission grants JACL Chicago permission to publish your personal statement in the chapter newsletter.

Additional question for graduate applicants: How do your educational and/or career goals align with JACL's mission? Please limit your statement to 250 words, and type and double-space your response.

10. Acknowledgement

I have read and fully understand the eligibility requirements for the JACL Chicago Scholarship Program. I have completed the application honestly and to the best of my knowledge and understand that any misrepresentation of information contained in this application may disqualify me from an award. I agree to provide the JACL Chicago Scholarship Committee with verification of my enrollment upon request, and understand that if for any reason I do not enter a school as indicated, I will forfeit my rights to an award. I understand that my attendance at the May 20, 2018 Scholarship Luncheon is required to receive an award.
